Topic Managing Records and Data Base for Phoenix Zoo

Gretchen Bickert has worked at a number of different zoos including the Potter Park Zoo, the Columbus Zoo and is currently the Registrar at the Phoenix Zoo. She has worked in the zoo field for over 22 years. Gretchen is currently a member of the IDMAG (Institutional Data Management Group), and Government Ownership Sub Committee. She assisted with the development of the Standards for Data Entry and Maintenance of NA Zoo and Aquarium Databases as Fish and Invertebrate Taxonomic team leader. For the past 10 years, she has been responsible for coordinating the acquisition and disposition of animals including overseeing their transportation. Her shipping experience includes domestic and international shipments for numerous species utilizing both land and air. Gretchen believes her success with shipping lies in the positive relationships developed with wildlife agents and shipping service providers.
